WETLAND ADVISORY

Minnesota Law prohibits the draining or filling of any wetlands, unless specifically approved by the appropriate authorities.

“Wetlands” means lands transitional between terrestrial and aquatic systems where the water table is usually at or near the surface or the land is covered by shallow water. For purposes of this definition, wetlands must have the following three attributes:

- 1) A predominance of hydric soils;
- 2) Are inundated or saturated by surface or ground water at a frequency and duration sufficient to support a prevalence of hydrophytic vegetation typically adapted for life in saturated soil conditions; and,
- 3) Under normal circumstances, support prevalence of such vegetation.

If you fill or drain a wetland in violation of Minnesota Law, you are subject to criminal penalties of up to 90 days in jail and/or a $700 fine. In addition, you could be ordered to restore any altered wetlands to their original condition at your own cost.

The placement of fill or dredged material in any wetland, lake, stream, river, pond, or prairie pothole may constitute a violation of Federal laws that are enforced by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. You are advised to contact that agency before commencing any such work.

There are eight types of wetland:

Type 1 – Seasonally flooded basins or flats. Soil is covered with water or waterlogged during seasonal periods but is usually well drained during the growing season.

Type 2 – Wet meadows. Soil is usually without standing water most of the growing season but is waterlogged within a few inches of the surface.

Type 3 – Soils which are usually waterlogged during the growing season and often covered with up to 6 inches of water. Many Type 3 wetlands have cattails and bulrushes and small open water area.

Type 4 – Soils which are usually covered with 6 inches to 3 feet of water during the growing season. Many Type 4 wetlands have cattails and bulrushes and much open water.

Type 5 – Shallow water ponds and reservoirs water 3 feet to 10 feet deep.

Type 6 – Shrub swamps. Soil is usually waterlogged during the growing season and are often covered with as much as 6 inches of water.

Type 7 – Wooded swamps. Soil is waterlogged at least to within a few inches of the surface during the growing season with as much as one foot of water. Occur mostly along sluggish streams or flood plains.

Type 8 – Bogs. Soil is usually waterlogged and supports a spongy covering of mosses.

As the applicant for this permit, you are responsible for determining whether any wetlands will be affected by this proposed project. By signing this document, the applicant affirms that no wetlands will be drained or filled during the course of the project.
